MADLANGA COMMISSION IN RECESS 3-11 SEPTEMBER 2026

STATEMENT BY JEREMY MICHAELS, SPOKESPERSON OF THE COMMISSION

The Judicial Commission of Inquiry into Criminality, Political Interference and Corruption in the Criminal Justice System, commonly known as the Madlanga Commission, will be in recess from 3 to 11 September 2026. The last day of public hearings this week will therefore be on Wednesday 2 September 2026.

The recess, for seven (7) working days, is necessary to ensure that two of the Commissioners honour commitments which they made at the time when the Commission was due to have completed its work by 31 August 2026. The Commission's deadline has since been extended.

The Commission's senior functionaries and extended team will continue to work during the recess, preparing for the public hearings which resume on Monday 14 September 2026.
