MR NKU: Good morning, Chair.

CHAIRPERSON: Thank you. Mr Mosikili?

ADV MOSIKILI: Thank you, Chair. Good morning, Chair, and good morning, the Commissioners. Chair, we have had a brief meeting with Mr Du Plessis and Mr Nku this morning. There is a recent development that we need to have further 10 interaction with Mr Nku and, potentially, supplement some of the statements that he has provided to the Commission, Chair. And the request, Chair, is for a stand down. For now, we will probably request for an hour and then assess the situation, Chair, and then we will advise. Mr Du Plessis is here and he can also confirm.

CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr Du Plessis? Your mic, your mic, please.

MR DU PLESSIS: Thank you, Chair. Yes, we have no objection. I am aware of the development.

20 CHAIRPERSON: I hope this will curtail proceedings, because otherwise the adjournment will delay the proceedings. Thank you.

ADV MOSIKILI: Thank you, Chair.

CHAIRPERSON: Let us adjourn. We will hear from you then. I will not indicate a time.

ADV MOSIKILI: We will need to advise, but thank you, Chair.

CHAIRPERSON: Thank you, thank you.

INQUIRY RESUMES

CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr Mosikili?

ADV MOSIKILI: Good afternoon, Chair. Good afternoon, Commissioners. Chair, thank you for standing the matter down until this time. Chair, I came to report that we have 10 made significant progress with the witness. However, the process is still ongoing, Chair. And if we were proceed with Mr Nku's evidence right now, Chairperson, given the time of the day, we would not finish because we still have to wrap up that process and then come back for his testimony, Chair. Our humble request, Chair, would be that we proceed with his evidence on Monday and we adjourn these proceedings, Chair, but all in the Chairperson's hands.

CHAIRPERSON: Thank you, Mr Mosikili. Mr Nku, the resumption of your testimony will be at 09:30 on Monday.
20 Do you understand?

MR NKU: Thank you, Chair. I understand.

CHAIRPERSON: You must be here that time. In fact, before that time on Monday.

MR NKU: Certainly.

CHAIRPERSON: So that come 09:30, we are seated here and we are starting.

MR NKU: Thank you, Chair.

CHAIRPERSON: Thank you. Let us adjourn.
